

CELEBRATING 30 YEARS OF

National Veterinary Technician Week

OCTOBER 15-21, 2023

“

My mantra has been ‘Dream, dare, do.’ It has served me well in life and I hope it helps others.”

Harold Davis, BA, RVT, VTS (ECC) (Anesth & Analgesia)

Credentialed since 1978

“

Find your passion, and follow your dreams. Pursue a career that makes you excited to get out of bed every day.”

Heidi Reuss-Lamky, LVT, VTS (Anesthesia/Analgesia) (Surgery)

Credentialed since 1984

“

I've been in the profession since 1973. Being a veterinary technician is more of a vocation and one that challenges us to continue to learn, improve our knowledge base and skills in order to become the best patient advocates that we are capable of being.”

Katy Waddell, LVT, VTS (ECC)-R, (Anesthesia and Analgesia)

Credentialed since 1977

“

Reinvent yourself, again, and again, and again, within your career as a veterinary professional, because the opportunities and choices are ENORMOUS!”

Rebecca Rose, RVT

Certified Career Coach
Credentialed since 1987

“

We joined this profession to help animals but remember that there is a human being at the other end of that leash or holding that carrier that loves that family member and needs compassion and empathy, especially during stressful times.”

Linda Markland, RVT

Credentialed since 1982

“

Never give up on this wonderful profession; keep exploring until you find your career niche!”

Kim Horne, AAS, CVT, VTS (Dermatology)

Credentialed since 1990

“

Being involved in state and national organizations is great for networking and helping the vet tech profession.”

Vicky Ograin, MBA, RVT, VTS (Nutrition)

Hill's Pet Nutrition
Credentialed since 1983
